

STUDENT GUIDE 1

FOR THE ON SECOND THOUGHT PROGRAM

by Teresa Busto, Psy.D Paula Busto, M.S.

Iffy thoughts are less accurate, unhelpful ways of viewing a situation.

Play Up

Thinking that your problem is worse than it really is. Also, thinking that someone else's success is greater than it is.

Play Down

Thinking that your achievements are no big deal. Also, thinking that others' weaknesses aren't so bad.

Explaining away your positive experiences.

Thinking is based on negative feelings.

Paint Everyone With The Same Brush

With little information, you use words like "all", "always" and "never" to form your opinion.

READ SOMEONE LIKE A BOOK

Believing that someone is thinking negatively about you.

Thinking the outcome will be negative.

Constantly repeating a negative thought.

Do A 180

Thinking with extreme words (i.e. everyone or no one, best or worst, etc.).

on Someone's Back

Using demanding words on yourself and/or others (i.e. should, have to, got to, must, ought to, etc.).

Lumping Everyone Together

Attaching a negative label to yourself and/or others based on an experience.

PASS THE BUCK

Passing the blame onto someone else.

THE BAG

Taking all of the blame.
